

Primerica Advisors Lifetime Investment Program Advisory Agreement

1. About This Agreement

This Primerica Advisors Lifetime Investment Program Advisory Agreement (“Agreement”) is made by you (“you” or “client”) and PFS Investments Inc. d/b/a Primerica Advisors (“Primerica Advisors” or “Primerica”), collectively the parties, and defines the investment advisory relationship between you and Primerica Advisors, as it relates to the management of your assets invested in the Lifetime Investment Program (“Program”) (formerly known as the Lifetime Investment Platform). The services, features and costs of the Program are described in the Primerica Advisors Form ADV brochure. By executing the signature page contained in the Lifetime Investment Program Proposal (“Proposal”), you agree to be legally bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Pursuant to Section 18 of this Agreement, by entering into this Agreement you consent to the use of electronic signatures and agree that applying an electronic signature or initials via DocuSign®, or other electronic signature platform, has the same legal effect as signing a paper version of this Agreement. By signing this Agreement, you represent and agree that you have read it carefully and understand its terms and conditions, including the Pre-Dispute Arbitration Clause located at Section 17. You should not sign this Agreement if you have any questions about your obligations herein, the services that Primerica is agreeing to provide, or the limitations of those services. You should retain this Agreement for future reference.

In consideration of the mutual promises and agreements contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, you and Primerica each agree to the following.

2. Primerica Advisors as Sponsor and Portfolio Manager

Primerica Advisors is the sponsor of the Program, as defined in Rule 3a-4 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (“Company Act”), as well as the discretionary portfolio manager for the Program.

In these roles, Primerica evaluates for inclusion in the Program third-party registered investment advisers (“Asset Managers”) who offer investment models (“Models”) to advisory programs. The Models are designed using investments in stocks, bonds, mutual funds, exchange traded funds (“ETFs”), and in some instances other exchange trade products (“ETPs”), including exchange traded notes (“ETNs”), and may in the future be expanded to include other securities.

The Asset Managers will provide Primerica with ongoing investment advice through the delivery of their respective Models. As Asset Managers modify their respective Models, they will communicate the changes to Primerica. Primerica, directly or through its service providers, will implement the Models as provided by the Asset Managers. For Program assets allocated to a discretionary SMA manager, Primerica will delegate investment discretion and trading authority to the Asset Manager.

To facilitate the management of your assets invested in the Program, you grant Primerica investment discretion and trading authority over your Program Account, and you authorize Primerica to exercise its authority under this Agreement by acting through its employees, contractors and agents, including by delegating investment discretion and trading authority to a discretionary SMA manager, an overlay manager or other investment adviser. This trading authorization is a continuing one and shall remain in full force and effect unless and until the Agreement is terminated.

Primerica reserves the right, in its discretion and without prior notice to clients, to close a Model to new investments or remove a Model from the Program. If you are invested in a Model that is removed or withdrawn from the Program, you authorize Primerica, at its discretion, to reinvest your assets in a Model(s) consistent with your Investment Profile; or hold your assets in cash until you select a replacement and communicate your selection to Primerica.

The Models you select in your Lifetime Investment Program Proposal will be held in an account (“Program Account”) registered in your name. Primerica, at its discretion, periodically will place trades in your Program Account so that the holdings remain consistent with the Models you have selected, allowing for reasonable variation due to fluctuations in asset values and the time required to implement Model changes. Trades will occur without regard to tax consequences or cost basis and may be initiated as a result of deposits into or withdrawals from your Program Account, periodic rebalancing due to changes in the relative market value of investments that cause deviations from a Model, or changes to the Model made by the Asset Manager. If your Program Account holds two or more Models, at its discretion, Primerica will place trades in your Program Account so that the assets are apportioned according to the percentages you select for each Model.

3. Your Primerica Advisor

To determine which Models are appropriately suited to your needs, your Primerica Advisors representative (“Advisor”) will assist you with completing an investment profile. This process is used to identify Models that are consistent with your investment objective, risk tolerance, and investment time horizon. Your Advisor may also collect additional information regarding your preferences related to market exposure, tax concerns, securities selection and investment lifecycle. Using this information, your Advisor will present for your consideration and selection a Model or Models for your Program Account.

You may discuss your participation in the Program with your Advisor at any time. You agree that it is your obligation to notify your Advisor or Primerica in writing of any significant changes in your financial situation or investment objectives. You also agree to notify Primerica or your Advisor in writing if you wish to modify or impose reasonable restrictions regarding the management of your Program Account. Your Advisor or Primerica will likewise undertake reasonable efforts to contact you at least once a year to assist you in making such determinations. You acknowledge and agree that your Advisor does not have discretion to modify or exchange the Models you select to be held in your Program Account.

4. Client

To receive the services offered by the Program, you must (1) Accept a Lifetime Investment Program Proposal (2) Establish a brokerage account at Primerica Brokerage Services, Inc. (“PBSI”) (3) Agree to all applicable terms and conditions related to the Program. After the applications and agreements are reviewed and approved by Primerica Advisors and PBSI, respectively, your Program Account will be established and will be eligible to be funded. Primerica reserves the right to add to or modify the documentation required to be submitted before a Program Account will be established.

You acknowledge and agree that the investment advice provided under the Program will be based exclusively on your investment profile and preferences, as documented in your Lifetime Investment Program Proposal. In addition, you confirm that all of the information provided in your Lifetime Investment Program Proposal and the PBSI new account forms, including the Investment Profile, is true, accurate, current and complete in all respects, and that you have the authority to provide such information to Primerica.

When you establish a Program Account, you have the right to impose reasonable restrictions regarding which securities will be purchased for your account. Please keep in mind that due to the nature of the Program, overly broad restrictions will interfere with the proper functioning and management of a Program Account. Primerica reserves the right to reject an account if you seek to designate investment restrictions in such a volume, magnitude or nature that the management of the Program Account would not be consistent with the overall investment strategy of the Program or a particular Model. The mutual funds, ETFs and ETPs held in your Program Account each have their own investment manager(s), who, in turn, invest the assets of the funds into underlying investment vehicles that are consistent with each fund’s individual investment objective. Neither you nor Primerica has the authority to impose a restriction on the holdings of a mutual fund, ETF, ETP, or other pooled investment vehicle.

If you elect to impose investment restrictions on the management of your Program Account, you understand that this may result in delays in the management of your assets and that you may be notified that your Program Account cannot be managed with those investment restrictions. Such restrictions may negatively affect the performance of your Program Account. Neither the Asset Manager nor Primerica Advisors is responsible for any deviation in the performance of your Program Account as compared to an account invested in the same Model without restrictions.

All trading within a Program Account is intended to occur at the direction of Primerica Advisors. Any order to buy or sell securities in your Program Account placed by you directly with PBSI may interfere with Primerica’s ability to manage your Program Account and may result in the termination of this Agreement. You take full financial responsibility for any such trades, and Primerica has no responsibility as to such trades or any deviation in the performance of your Program Account as compared to an account invested in the same Model without client trading.

Any securities that you transfer into your Program Account will be liquidated and the cash proceeds will be reinvested according to the Model(s) selected for your Program Account. Liquidations will be processed without regard to cost basis or tax consequences. Any interest, dividends or capital gains paid to your Program Account will be reinvested and will be allocated at Primerica's discretion in accordance with your Investment Profile.

After the Program Account is opened, it is your responsibility to notify your Advisor of any significant changes in your financial circumstances or investment objectives. You and your Advisor will then determine whether to reconsider the Models selected for your Program Account. It is your responsibility to tell your Advisor if you wish to change the Models held in the Program Account. Quarterly, Primerica Advisors will notify you to contact your Advisor regarding any changes to your financial situation or investment needs.

Subject to Primerica's discretionary authority as described in this Agreement, unless you submit, in a form acceptable to Primerica, a request to modify your Model selections, your Program Account will remain invested as is. You are responsible for reviewing all updates and changes to your Program Account and will have the ability to monitor your account online. Changes to your financial circumstances or investment objectives, will not automatically result in changes to the management of your Program Account. Neither the assets nor the trading activity in any other accounts you have with Primerica Advisors, its affiliates, or any other financial institution, including a Non-Program Account (defined in Section 7), are considered by Primerica or your Advisor in connection with the management of your Program Account.

For Program Accounts registered in the name of joint owners, each owner agrees to be jointly and severally liable for all obligations arising under this Agreement or otherwise relating to the Program Account or participation in the Program, including responsibility for order instructions given through the Program or using any User ID and Password associated with the online access to your Program Account, regardless of which person gives such instructions, enters such orders or changes such Password.

You acknowledge and agree that each owner of a Program Account has full authority, acting individually and without notice to any other owner, to deal with Primerica as fully and completely as if such owner were the sole owner. Each Program Account owner authorizes Primerica to follow the instructions of any of the owners concerning any matter pertaining to the Program. This includes the purchase and sale of securities, delivery of property in the Program Account to any third party or disbursement of any or all monies in the Program Account.

Primerica is not responsible for determining the purpose or propriety of any instruction received from any owner as against any other owner or of any payments or deliveries of securities or other property between or among Program Account owners. At its sole discretion, Primerica reserves the right to require written instructions from one or all owners. If Primerica receives instructions from any owner that, in Primerica's opinion, conflict with instructions received from any other owner, Primerica may comply with any of these instructions or advise each owner of the apparent conflict and take no action as to any of these instructions until it actually receives and has a reasonable amount of time to act on satisfactory instructions from all of the owners.

5. Program Administration

Primerica utilizes various service providers in fulfilling its obligations under the Agreement. Primerica reserves the right to add or remove service providers at its discretion and without prior notice to you. To the extent you receive advisory services from any such service provider, you authorize Primerica to accept delivery on your behalf of disclosures and other materials, including but not limited to the service provider's Form CRS and Form ADV, that the service provider would otherwise be required to deliver to you. Primerica, at its discretion, may accept delivery of any such materials on your behalf, or alternatively may forward the service provider's materials to you.

If your Program Accounts holds mutual funds or other securities sold pursuant to a prospectus, you authorize Primerica to accept delivery of prospectuses on your behalf.

You acknowledge and accept that Primerica requires that certain types of communications be submitted in writing or on forms created for a specific purpose. Primerica reserves the right to modify such requirements at any time without prior notice.

6. Brokerage and Custodial Services

Primerica arranges with Primerica Brokerage Services, Inc. ("PBSI"), an affiliated broker-dealer, to act as introducing broker-dealer for Program Accounts. PBSI through a fully disclosed clearing agreement, has contracted with Pershing, a subsidiary of the Bank of New York Mellon, to provide custody, trade execution, clearing, settlement and other services for all Program Accounts. Pershing is the qualified custodian of Program assets, as defined in Rule 206(4)-2 of the Investment Advisors Act of 1940. You direct Primerica to place all transactions for your Program Account through PBSI and Pershing. You acknowledge that PBSI and Pershing may not always obtain as favorable a price as another broker-dealer. By directing Primerica to place all Program Account transactions through PBSI and Pershing, you agree that you will look only to them to obtain best execution. You will receive account statements, transaction confirmations, mutual fund prospectuses, tax forms, and other correspondence, as applicable, from PBSI and Pershing.

To facilitate the management of the assets in the Program, you appoint Primerica Advisors as your attorney-in-fact with respect to the Program for the limited purpose of issuing instructions to PBSI to purchase, sell, and otherwise process all securities transactions in your Program Account.

For Program assets invested in a discretionary SMA strategy, the Asset Manager has discretion to select the broker-dealers through which securities transactions will be executed. Such transactions will be settled through Pershing and affected securities will be held in your Pershing custodial account.

Unless you select another option available from PBSI, any cash balances in a Program Account will be held in the default cash sweep option indicated in your PBSI account documentation. Cash held in a money market fund is neither insured nor guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency.

PBSI reserves the right not to accept a deposit of funds or particular securities. Funds or securities not accepted by PBSI are ineligible to be used as a funding source for a Program Account.

Pershing is the IRS-approved IRA custodian for Program assets held in accounts described in IRC section 403(b)(7), and individual retirement accounts established under IRC section 408 (collectively referred to as "Retirement Accounts"). If your Program Account is a Retirement Account, then you agree to the terms of the applicable Pershing IRA Custodial Account Agreement and disclosures.

You authorize trade orders associated with your Program Account to be aggregated with orders from other customers and acknowledge that execution prices may be affected by such order aggregation practices. You understand that larger orders are relatively more likely than small orders to receive executions at multiple prices. When orders are aggregated, you will receive the average price per unit of the executed trades that fulfill an aggregated order.

Primerica's ability to manage your Program Account is subject to the terms and conditions contained in your PBSI account agreements, and other related PBSI and Pershing agreements and disclosures. Restrictions imposed by PBSI or Pershing will limit Primerica's ability to manage your Program Account. If either PBSI or Pershing is unwilling to open a brokerage account for you, then you will be ineligible to invest through the Program.

7. Non-Program Assets

As an accommodation to participants in the Program, a self-directed non-program account ("Non-Program Account") is available to clients who wish to hold assets at Pershing outside of the Program Models.

Neither Primerica nor your Advisor will provide investment advice for the assets in the Non-Program Account or place orders in the Non-Program Account on your behalf. Transactions in a Non-Program Account are limited to those described in the PBSI account agreement and you must contact PBSI directly to submit trade orders in a Non-Program Account. By entering into the Advisory Agreement, you grant "view only" access for your Non-Program Account to Primerica and your Advisor. Primerica reserves the right to periodically review the trading activity in Non-Program Accounts consistent with applicable law but will not monitor your Non-Program Account to determine whether your holdings are in your best interest or are otherwise appropriate for meeting your investment goals. Neither the assets nor the trading activity in a Non-Program Account are considered by Primerica or your Advisor in connection with the management of your Program Account. If at any time you transfer securities held in a Non-Program Account to your Program Account, Primerica will consider such action as an instruction from you to liquidate the securities and to invest the proceeds in the Models held in your Program Account.

To establish a Non-Program Account, you must identify in the PBSI new account forms, or other form acceptable to PBSI, the specific securities you wish to hold as Non-Program Assets, or otherwise provide such instructions in a form acceptable to PBSI. By entering into the PBSI account agreement, you authorize Primerica Advisors to direct PBSI to establish a Non-Program Account on your behalf and to hold the securities you have identified as Non-Program Assets in a Non-Program Account. The fees applicable to your Non-Program Account are established by PBSI and are separate from the annual wrap fee (discussed below) that you will pay to Primerica Advisors.

8. Fee

You agree to pay an annual wrap fee ("Fee") for the services provided under this Agreement. The Fee consists of three components: (1) Advisor fee; (2) Administration fee; and (3) Asset Manager fee. The Fee and its components are discussed in detail in the Primerica Advisors Lifetime Investment Program Form ADV Wrap Fee Program Brochure.

By executing the Signature Page, you acknowledge and accept the Fee schedule contained in your Lifetime Investment Program Proposal. The Fee schedule establishes the rates you will be charged for each component of the Fee. The rates contained in your Fee schedule will be used to calculate your Fee each billing cycle.

The Fee is subject to change, as provided in Section 18(b).

By entering into this Agreement, you authorize Primerica to debit the Fee, as described in the Lifetime Investment Program Form ADV brochure, directly from your Program Account. Primerica, in its discretion, will determine which assets in the Program Account will be liquidated to cover the Fee without regard to tax consequences or cost basis. PBSI will send you a statement, at least quarterly, indicating all amounts disbursed from the Program Account, including the Fee.

All assets held in the Program Account are subject to the Fee, including assets acquired through interest, dividend and capital gains reinvestments and automatic investment programs, as well as any portion of the Program Account held in cash or short-term vehicles including, but not limited to, money market funds.

9. Fund Management Fees and Other Expenses

You acknowledge that mutual funds may have conditions regarding the purchase and redemption of shares, including minimum purchase requirements and redemption fees for redemptions occurring within specified time periods of purchase, and that any such costs would be charged to you in addition to the Fee. Such conditions are discussed in each fund's prospectus. Additional information regarding such charges and fees may be found in the appropriate prospectus or other fund documents.

10. Funding of Accounts

Accounts may be funded via check, wire, ACH, Automated Customer Account Transfer Service (ACATS) request from a current custodian or other method accepted by PBSI and Pershing. You understand that you may make deposits into or withdrawals from the Program Account at any time and acknowledge that such deposits or withdrawals may trigger buy, sell or rebalancing transactions in the Program Account. You understand that withdrawals from the Program Account may result in adverse tax consequences and may prevent you from meeting your investment objectives. ACATS will be processed subject to approval by PBSI and Pershing.

11. Minimum Investment

Participation in the Program requires a minimum investment of $25,000.00. Certain Models have higher minimums. Primerica reserves the right to terminate this Agreement at any time as described in Section 17. Notwithstanding its rights under Section 17, Primerica generally will seek to administer accounts that do not meet the minimum investment requirement in the following manner.

If you deposit cash or securities into a Program Account in an amount insufficient to reach the Program minimum, Primerica will, after reasonable efforts to contact you and without regard to tax consequences, liquidate any securities held in the Program Account, distribute the cash balance to you and terminate your Lifetime Investment Program Advisory Agreement.

If at any time after funding your Program Account with the minimum investment amount, the total market value of the assets held in a Program Account falls below the then Program minimum, as a result of withdrawals or market volatility, you authorize Primerica, at its discretion, to move the assets in your Program Account to a Model suitable for the then current value.

If the value of a Program Account exceeds the Program minimum but is insufficient to fund each of the Models in the Program Account, Primerica reserves the right to consolidate your holdings into a single Model. Primerica will not consolidate assets held in separate Program Accounts.

Primerica reserves the right to accept or maintain accounts that do not meet the minimum investment requirements. The Models selected for your Program Account will not be implemented until cash or securities sufficient to meet the minimum investment requirement are deposited into your Program Account.

12. No Exclusivity

You understand that Primerica Advisors, the Asset Managers, and PBSI may have responsibilities to render investment advice to and perform other investment services for other individuals and entities ("Other Accounts"). By entering into this Agreement, you acknowledge and agree that Primerica Advisors, the Asset Managers, and PBSI, and their respective affiliates (and all of their respective partners, directors, officers, agents and employees) may buy, sell or trade in any securities for their respective accounts ("Proprietary Accounts"). Each of Primerica Advisors, the Asset Managers, PBSI and their affiliates, may give advice or exercise investment responsibility and take such other actions with respect to Other Accounts and Proprietary Accounts which may be similar to, differ from, or contradict, the advice given or the timing or nature of action taken with respect to a Program Account. You also understand that Other Accounts and Proprietary Accounts may at any time hold, acquire, increase, decrease, dispose of or otherwise deal with positions in investments in which a Program Account may have an interest from time to time. You acknowledge and agree that Primerica Advisors, the Asset Managers, and PBSI have no obligation to purchase for a Program Account a position in any investment that Other Accounts or Proprietary Accounts may acquire, and that the Program Account has no first refusal, co-investment or other rights in respect of any such investment.

13. Proxy Voting: Corporate and Legal Actions

You direct Primerica to vote proxies and other corporate actions on your behalf for securities held in a Program Account and authorize Primerica to delegate proxy voting to one or more service providers, including but not limited to an overlay manager. You authorize Primerica and its service providers to undertake any action reasonably necessary to facilitate voting of proxies and other corporate actions. Primerica accepts delegation of proxy voting authority only for Program assets managed through a PBSI account at Pershing. Primerica will not vote proxies or other corporate actions related to securities held away from Pershing or held in a Non-Program Account.

14. Client Representations, Warranties and Acknowledgments

Client represents and warrants to Primerica Advisors, and agrees that:

You agree to notify Primerica promptly of any event that might affect your authority or the validity of this Agreement.

- D. Accounts Under Uniform Gifts/Transfers to Minor Act. If the Program Account is a custodial account for a minor established under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or Uniform Gifts to Minors Act (or similar statutes), you, as custodian for a minor, agree that: (1) Primerica and PBSI may rely on your actions and instructions without further inquiry; and (2) you will indemnify Primerica and PBSI and their respective agents and employees for any loss or costs, including legal fees, arising out of claims relating to their reliance on your actions or instructions.

Form CRS is provided to you to comply with the SEC's Form CRS, Regulation Best Interest, and Investment Advisers Act disclosure requirements. It does not create or modify any agreement, relationship, or obligation between you and PFSI, your Advisor or any service provider to the Program. If client is a retirement plan subject to ERISA, client agrees to add a clause to the fidelity bond required by law that provides coverage for agents employed by it. This clause shall cover Primerica Advisors, and any of its officers, directors, employees and investment adviser representatives.

If a Program Account is subject to ERISA, you represent that: (1) you are a "named fiduciary" within the meaning of ERISA with respect to the control or management of the assets of the Program Account and have authority to appoint other parties as fiduciaries with respect to the Program Account (as applicable); and (2) if the assets in the Program Account represent a portion of the assets of an employee benefit plan as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA ("Plan"), you will remain responsible for determining an appropriate overall investment policy and diversification and liquidity policy for the assets of such Plan. If the Program Account is a Plan, you represent and warrant that you will deliver to Primerica upon request an accurate and complete copy of all documents governing the administration of the Plan and the investment of Plan assets ("Plan Documents") and that overall investment strategy, specific Portfolio objectives and investment restrictions (as applicable), which you hereby approve, accurately and completely set forth any limitations or restrictions with respect to Plan investments which are contained in the Plan Documents.

Generally, the laws of the state of your last known residence or domicile will apply in determining whether an account is dormant. State laws vary as to the circumstances under which an account will be considered dormant.

15. Limitations of Liability; Indemnification

You understand that none of Primerica Advisors, the Asset Managers nor PBSI guarantee: (1) the future performance of the Program Account; (2) any specific level of performance; (3) the success of any investment decision or investment strategy used; (4) the success of the overall management of the Program Account; or (5) that any particular person will provide the services to be provided under this Agreement. You understand that investment decisions made for your Program Account pursuant to this Agreement are subject to various market, currency, economic, political and business risks, and that those investment decisions will not always be profitable and may subject the Program Account to overall investment losses.

In addition to any other remedy available under applicable law, you agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless each of Primerica Advisors, its affiliates, and their respective shareholders, trustees, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives, from and against any loss, injury, claim, damage, other liability, cost or expense (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) (collectively, "Losses") asserted against, or incurred or suffered by, such party arising out of or relating to: (1) a breach of your obligations, covenants or representations and warranties under or in connection with this Agreement; (2) a violation of applicable law by you; (3) your gross negligence or willful misconduct; (4) any obsolete, incomplete or inaccurate information provided by you or on your behalf, or any omission that, had it been provided, would have been material to your Investment Profile; or (5) any action taken or not taken pursuant to an express instruction from you. You agree that neither Primerica nor its Advisors shall be responsible or otherwise liable for any consequential, incidental, special or punitive damages, whether or not any of them were advised (or were otherwise aware) of the possibility of such damages.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision to the contrary in this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of any of your rights, or relieve Primerica or its respective shareholders, trustees, directors, officers, employees and agents, from any liability under ERISA or applicable state and federal securities laws. Primerica Advisors shall each be responsible as a fiduciary under ERISA only to the extent that it has undertaken fiduciary duties under this Agreement, and you acknowledge that you retain or have assigned all other investment management responsibility. The provisions of this Section 15 shall survive termination of this Agreement.

16. Duration and Termination

You may terminate this Agreement within five (5) business days of its initial execution without charge. Thereafter, either you or Primerica may terminate this Agreement at any time upon written notice to the other, which becomes effective when received or as of a specific future date if indicated in the notice. If at any time the total market value of the assets held in any of the Models in a Program Account falls below the Minimum Investment, as a result of withdrawals or market volatility, Primerica reserves the right to terminate this Agreement. If this Agreement is terminated for any reason, your advisory relationship with Primerica shall simultaneously terminate, and all features and privileges associated with the Program Account, will be cancelled and cease. Any assets held in your Program Account or Non-Program Account after the Agreement is terminated may be liquidated and distributed to you or otherwise disposed of pursuant to the authorizations contained in the PBSI account agreement.

Termination of this Agreement or any particular Program Account will not affect or preclude the consummation of any trade initiated, or any liability or obligation arising before the termination date, including payment of any outstanding fees. You will remain responsible for services rendered, Fees accrued, charges, debit items, and transactions initiated or authorized by you, up to and including the date of termination. If you transfer the assets in the Program Account to another broker-dealer or custodian, this Agreement will terminate as of the date of the transfer of the assets.

17. Arbitration Clause

THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS A PREDISPUTE ARBITRATION CLAUSE. BY SIGNING THE SIGNATURE PAGE, PRIMERICA AND CLIENT EACH AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

- A. ALL PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT ARE GIVING UP THE RIGHT TO SUE EACH OTHER IN COURT, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY, EXCEPT AS PROVIDED BY THE RULES OF THE ARBITRATION FORUM IN WHICH A CLAIM IS FILED.

18. Electronic Delivery, Signature and Online Access

The Program has been designed so that written agreements, Program disclosures, and other written Program communications, including communications from the clearing broker, (together, "Program Communications") will be delivered to you electronically. You agree and acknowledge that Program Communications will be electronically delivered to you through the online access you will be granted to the PBSI website ("PBSI Website"). You will receive a separate e-mail instructing you on how to establish that access and you agree that you will establish your PBSI Website credentials upon receipt of such email. You understand and acknowledge that you will receive a separate email when a Program Communication is available for you to view on the PBSI Website. You agree that all email notifications sent to you that a Program Communication is available on the PBSI Website constitute good and effective delivery of that Program Communication.

Your consent to electronic delivery is effective immediately upon signing this Agreement and you agree that you will update your email address and preferred communications methods through the PBSI website, or by contacting your Primerica Advisors representative, immediately, if there is a change. You understand that if you request paper copies of any such documents, you may be charged a reasonable service charge for the delivery of paper copies of any documents, and that PBSI may limit product features of your Account. You further agree that neither your request for paper copies of a document nor any delivery of paper copies of a document to you will imply that the previous electronic delivery of any documents or Program Communications to you were not good and effective.

You may withhold or withdraw your consent to electronic delivery which will alert PBSI that thereafter you want to receive all Program Communications in paper format. To inform PBSI that you no longer want to receive documents electronically, you must contact Primerica Advisors. If you

These minimum requirements are subject to change. If these requirements change, you may be asked to confirm your access to disclosures electronically. Pre-release (e.g. beta) versions of operating systems and browsers are not supported. You can download Adobe Acrobat® through the following link: <https://get.adobe.com/reader/>.

If you consent to these terms and conditions, you must provide PBSI and Pershing with your contact information, including a valid e-mail address. It is your responsibility to immediately inform PBSI and Pershing of changes to your e-mail address by sending a written notification to Primerica Advisors or updating your email through the PBSI Website. You agree that until PBSI and Pershing have received and had a reasonable time to act on any notice of a change, PBSI and Pershing may continue to send information to your previous e-mail address and any such information will be deemed to have been delivered to you, whether or not you have actually received it. If an e-mail notification sent to you is returned to PBSI or Pershing as undeliverable and PBSI or Pershing are unable to obtain a valid e-mail address, PBSI may limit the product features of your Account.
